

Privacy Policy

Stangeland Glassfiber Produkter AS (SGP) values the protection of personal data, and we therefore place great emphasis on protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains and clarifies how we, as data controller, treat SGP employee's and customer's personal data according to current laws and regulations.

SGP store personal data about our customers to deliver high quality products and services as well as following up and support those products and services going forward.

This policy will apply in situations where SGP treats personal data willingly collected from our employees or customers.

According to Personal Data Act, SGP can collect, process and store personal data necessary to fulfil the purpose of contractual agreements with employees and customers.

SGP does not disclose personal data to any third party unless it is part of a contractual agreement with the customer.

SGP will delete personal data when the company no longer has a reason to keep the information in accordance with the Personal Data Act.

Persons having personal data stored and processed at SGP can at any time contact General Manager (post@glassfiber.no) to review the personal data. The person can request personal data to be changed or deleted, unless SGP needs the data to uphold obligations according to Norwegian law and or if other agreements are signed off with the person.

All personal data are stored and access is controlled according to SGP internal routines.
